1. The China hot sell cnc torno vmc1370 3/4/ 5 axis cnc machine price with high quality making tool base, column, spindle box, cross sliding table, table, etc are all made of high strength epc molding technology, stable internal microstructure, basis to ensure a high stability. The structure of the castings has been analyzed by machine tool dynamics and finite element analysis, which makes its geometrical structure more reasonable, and the proper collocation of reinforcing bars ensures the high rigidity of the basic parts. Width of machine tool base, "people" word box cavity column, widen the extended bed saddle, load all the design of the support, structure of composite material mechanics advanced design concept, to ensure processing of heavy load capacity.
2. VMC1370 cnc vertical machine center High rigidity and high precision spindle: the main shaft of Taiwan jiancheng is bt40-150mm.
 - (1) the spindle motor can greatly reduce transmission noise and heat generation through synchronous belt transmission.
 - (2) the spindle adopts precision Japanese NSK bearing, high speed and high precision, with a maximum speed of 8000r/min.
 - (3) the spindle box body adopts a 1:1 weight balance weight, and the weight is more reliable and stable. When the spindle is running at high speed, avoid resonant phenomena and ensure the best machining accuracy.
3. China High Quality 5 Axis Vertical cnc Milling Machine for metal Adopt the high precision and high strength ball screw of Taiwan law. Imported high precision lock nut, ball screw after the pre-tension, greatly increases the driving rigidity and eliminate the hot deformation effects of the exercise, thus to ensure the positioning precision of the machine tool and repeat positioning accuracy.
